

Leaf411 Corona/COVID-19 Preparedness Support (UPDATED 4/2/2020)

Phase 1: Notify your employees and customers through all media platforms that you are taking the Coronavirus/COVID-19 virus very seriously and are taking necessary steps to ensure the utmost public safety as an industry leader.

- Please review last email update on 3/23/2020 for details.

Phase 2: As restrictions regarding social distancing tighten, assuring customers and employees that you are taking all steps necessary to ensure public safety is key.

- Please review last email update on 3/23/2020 for details.

Phase 3: New Curbside Pick-up considerations:

- Please review last email update on 3/23/2020 for details.

Additional Resources:

- <https://4pillarsdenver.com/>: Dr. Dave Gordon (Leaf411 Advisory Board) is now taking MMJ card appointments via newly approved Telemedicine as well as consultations.
- <https://mcallistergarfield.com/> : David Wunderlich, Esq, Senior Attorney (Leaf411 Advisory Board) If you have any concerns or questions during this difficult time, please do not hesitate to contact McAllister Garfield to discuss your response to COVID-19 and its effect on the industry and the economy.

Phase 4: Industry wide concern for employee mental health

- We have been hearing your concerns that the mental wellbeing of your employees still interacting with our public is of utmost priority right now. Your employees, which include you as their managers and executives, are shouldering an incredible amount of stress with fears about spreading or contracting the virus. We deeply understand this concern and applaud your efforts for acknowledging your staff members mental wellbeing during this unprecedented time.
- Here are some resources to share:
  - <https://www.sparkthechangecolorado.org/mental-health> : The Mental Wellness Program connects mental health practitioners who volunteer their time and expertise to low-income Coloradans in need of counseling. Each year, the program connects over 1,000 individuals to no-cost mental health services in their communities.
  - www.michaelpipich.com & www.thecoloradocenter.com : Michael Pipich, LMFT Providing telehealth mental health care with Colorado Center for Clinical Excellence, PH: (844) 369-5059 or Email: michael@michaelpipich.com
  - Employees are strongly encouraged to call our nurse hotline 1-844-LEAF411 (844-532-3411), chat though our website at leaf411.org to discuss any COVID and cannabis questions plus visit our website's Leaf Library for more resources.